Pinnacle Peak Steakhouse Continues its Support at 2019 Winter Showdown

Bakersfield, CA – The 'Winter Showdown' is proud to announce that Pinnacle Peak Steakhouse of Colton and San Dimas will return for the fourth year in a row to sponsor the Last Chance Race at the 2019 installment of the "Nation's Richest Short Track Race".

Pinnacle Peak Steakhouse, the southern California based restaurant known for its Cowboy Steak, along with the mantra, "No Ties Allowed", will be part of the fifth annual event, as they will continue to sponsor the "Pinnacle Peak Steakhouse Last Chance Race" on Friday night.

"Pinnacle Peak Steakhouse and Glenn (Davis) have been big supporters of our series and race teams over the years." stated the SRL's Brian Olsen. "He may be one of the biggest fans of short track racing in southern California and we're grateful that his love of the sport spills over to supporting the Winter Showdown."

The format to qualify for the Fifth Annual Winter Showdown will begin with single car qualifying at 6:30pm on Friday, February 1st. The Top 30 drivers from qualifying are locked into the Winter Showdown 300, with the "Bobby Durrett Fast Time Award" and a $2,500 cash bonus going to the top qualifier. Those outside the Top 30 in qualifying will compete later that evening in the "Pinnacle Peak Steakhouse Last Chance Race", with the Top 4 transferring to the main event on Saturday afternoon.

Friday, February 1st is "51 FIFTY Energy Drink Opening Night" featuring "Winter Showdown Qualifying Controlled by Traffic Management, Inc.", "Motor City GMC Super Stock Showdown", the "Spears Manufacturing Modified Series presented by Lucas Oil All Star Race" and the "Pinnacle Peak Steakhouse Last Chance Race".

On Saturday afternoon, February 2nd it's the Spears Manufacturing Modified Series presented by Lucas Oil 'Showdown', followed by the $30,000 to win "SPEARS Manufacturing Winter Showdown 300" for the Super Late Models.
